As the residential development boom continues across the city, there are even more fantastic options for families seeking comfortable homes with top-notch amenities for all ages. Whether you're actively looking for a new home for your growing family, or are simply curious about what's out there, we've put together a selection of amenity-rich new buildings and classic family properties.

The below includes properties from parts I and II of our fall 2016 real estate guide.

TRIBECA

111 Murray | 111 Murray Street

This condominium tower offers 157 residences ranging from one-bedrooms to full-floor penthouses, which overlook the Manhattan skyline, Hudson River, and New York Harbor. Indoor and outdoor spaces include two levels of amenities including a bike room, children's playroom, cold storage, concierge, gym, hot tub, media room, swimming pool, storage, and valet parking. Landscaped gardens are located right across from the Hudson River Park's Pier 25, where residents can play volleyball in sand courts as well as miniature golf. 111murray.com
